Working with UBC medical learners? Teaching in a busy clinical environment can be challenging but rewarding. Join SMH and JPOCSC preceptors for an accredited, practical, and interactive workshop designed to strengthen teaching skills and support effective learner integration in busy clinical settings. We will explore teaching opportunities and explore strategies to enhance learner engagement while maintaining clinical efficiency. Please RSVP for dinner planning purposes.

Hosted by: Undergraduate Education Site Lead (Dr. Raman Sandhu) and Faculty Development (Drs. Patrick Chen and Lisa Weger)

We're growing and hiring! We're seeking faculty to teach across the program, offering a wide range of opportunities and time commitments. Connect with us at vfmp.facdev@ubc.ca to learn which roles best fit your professional interests and busy schedules.

Get up to 1.5
